NJ's Clean Energy Program Hosting Webinar on Energy Efficient Wastewater

New Jersey's Clean Energy Program will be hosting a webinar on "Energy Efficiency in Wastewater"

March 5, 2020
10:00am to 11:30am

Hear from New Jersey's Clean Energy Program (NJCEP) wastewater account specialists as they explore best practices in energy efficiency that are critical to the utility of the future. They will walk you through overcoming challenges of energy efficiency in wastewater, and discuss offerings from New Jersey's Clean Energy Program that include free audits for local government facilities and financial incentives that are currently available.

This webinar will share insights on how you may experience deeper energy savings; reduced maintenance costs; improved reliability and performance; and effective ways for enhancing public relations and good citizenship.
